Dear Clarence:

It was good to receive your letter of December 21 commending [ ] [ ] on the work that he is doing for you.

It is not often nowadays that one as busy as you will take the time to express appreciation for the work others have done for him. I am taking the liberty of having your letter made a part of [ ] files.

With best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

I want you to know how much I value the service that [redacted] who is on loan to me from your staff, is rendering me. He is now fully indoctrinated in my subject, and not a day passes but what he performs some intelligent service for our program. He has a good mind and friendly personality, and is very definitely pulling his weight.

Sincerely yours,

(signed)
